

Chapter Titles

	Page
Introduction	3
 Part One: – Making sense of the situation we are in – how, we, 6bn people are robbed and our futures are endangered by a few
1. A time of system breakdown - but also one of hope	8
2. Understanding the financial crisis	16
3. We, 6.7bn people, need to feel our fear and anger - That can provide the energy for fundamental change – we need to transform democracy	28
4. We face the biggest crisis in human history - growth is not working	35
Introduction
a. Climate change	37
b. Peak oil and its impact on our lives	55
c. Destruction of the ecosystem on which all life depends	59
d. Poverty and economic justice	68
e. Violence, war and the threat of nuclear annihilation	76
Conclusions
5. About the corporation and other things you need to know	84
6. Seeing the underlying system clearly	94
7. Gandhi's thinking provides inspiration for the 21st century	98
 Part Two: – A vision for a better world – possibilities for a better future - what needs to be done
8. Greening the world - What needs to be done about climate change, peak oil and ecological destruction – greening the north, paradigm change, green transport, green heat and power, good models	107
9. Transforming the system to create a sustainable and just global economy - A Steady-State Economy; A Green New Deal; Contraction and Convergence, Cap and Share, Fee and Dividend, Global governance: global institutions and fair global trade	118
10. New money - Money, debt, taxation, the commons, land value tax and citizens' income	131
11. Unlocking democracy - Giving power to communities and people, providing real choice, government that serves citizens	146
12. Feeding the world - A real green revolution, food sovereignty and security, agriculture vs. agribusiness, bioregionalism and localisation vs. globalisation, sustainable distribution	159
13. Creating sustainable cities, towns and communities - Local vs. globalisation, hi tech vs. low tech, positive models – many good things are happening	176
14. The possibility of peace - Ending war, violence and the threat of nuclear annihilation	187
15. After Copenhagen - What happened, what progress was made, what went wrong and ways forward	195
16. What we need to do - How we can make it happen, what you can do, resources	205
 References	 211